Myself Rashesh Das, M.Sc Zoology passout from Maa Manikeshwari University (Erstwhile, Kalahandi University), Bhawanipatna.

This month long internship was an incredible and unbelievable program for us. We've never thought of the way the trainers explained us. Neglecting their own works, Repeating the same experiments for five different groups and most importantly, actively interacting with each and every trainees and solving their difficulties with starting from simple calculations upto micropipette handling with a vibrant smile on their face was the best experience ever 😊. Specially, the way, Dibya sir explained that how to handle a glass pipette, how to pipette and how to perfectly measure the chemicals with the digital weighing balance 😊 I've never been explained in my life

All of them we're awesome.

I specially enjoyed a lot with Dibya Sir and Baishali Ma'am from Phytochemistry lab, Pratyush Sir, Mushtak sir and Swaraj Sir from animal cell culture lab.

Starting from our residence in this beautiful guesthouse upto the fooding, all of these will be unforgettable for all of us definitely.

Special thanks to all the members, who are in management.

Lastly, the source of all of these beautiful energies, is non other than our most beloved Dr. P K Nayak Sir 😊.

Whatever is happening is just because of you sir, whenever we talk to you, we get a different life I must say 😊. I have no words to explain you sir.

S *Good evening, sir 🙏 *

We, the students of S.K.C.G (Auto) College, Paralakhemundi, found being an intern to be a unique experience where we learned something new every day. From walking in on our first day until leaving a month later, we gained so much knowledge. Being in a large corporation, but as part of a small BT and BI family, had several great benefits.

Regarding accommodation , it was beyond our expectations, including the food. All the trainers were very amiable to us. When we did those experiments, we enjoyed a lot with them. They understood our feelings by observing our faces to see if we had any doubts.

It was a beautiful journey between trainees and trainers.

Thank you so much, BT & BI, Sambalpur University, for arranging the NIP. 🙏

Special thanks to Dr. P.K. Naik, A.K.P. Sir, the CEO of WINDNA, and all the respected persons on the dais. 🙏

I especially enjoyed and curious about the noscapinoid invention for cancer treatment, and many more basic handling of minute to major equipments used for a lab.

I also thankful and pay my gratitude towards all the trainers for such familiar attitude along our training and answer to any of our queries even if it may a silly one. Thank you for everything during this long session.

Hope and request from all of us to inaugurate many more such valuable programs in near future sir.
